Letters From The Earth Mark Twain, 2017-04-04 The Creator sat upon the throne thinking Behind him stretched the illimitable continent of heaven steeped in a glory of light and color before him rose the black night of Space like a wall His mighty bulk towered rugged and mountain like into the zenith and His divine head blazed there like a distant sun At His feet stood three colossal figures diminished to extinction almost by contrast archangels their heads level with His ankle bone When the Creator had finished thinking He said I have thought Behold He lifted His hand and from it burst a fountain spray of fire a million stupendous suns which clove the blackness and soared away and away and away diminishing in magnitude and intensity as they pierced the far frontiers of Space until at last they were but as diamond nailheads sparkling under the domed vast roof of the universe At the end of an hour the Grand Council was dismissed They left the Presence impressed and thoughtful and retired to a private place where they might talk with freedom None of the three seemed to want to begin though all wanted somebody to do it
