

IB HISTORY OF THE AMERICAS

PAPER 3 - HISTORY OF THE AMERICAS QUESTIONS

The development of modern nations 1865-1929*

This section, covering the period between the late 19th century and the early 20th century, saw forces that transformed the countries of the region. These forces are generally seen as part of "modernization", a process that involved the progressive transformation of the economic, political and social structures of the countries of the region.

- Causes and consequences of railroad construction; industrial growth and economic modernization; the development of international and inter-American trade; neocolonialism and dependency
- Causes and consequences of immigration; emigration and internal migration, including the impact upon, and experience of, indigenous peoples
- Development and impact of ideological currents including Progressivism, Manifest Destiny, liberalism, nationalism, positivism, Social Darwinism, "indigenismo" and nativism
- Social and cultural changes: the arts; the role of women
- Influence of leaders in the transition to the modern era: political and economic aims; assessment of the successes and failures of Theodore Roosevelt, Wilfrid Laurier and a Latin American leader of the student's choice
- Social, economic and legal conditions of African Americans between 1865 and 1929; the Great Migration and the Harlem Renaissance; the search for civil rights and the ideas, aims and tactics of Booker T Washington, WEB Dubois and Marcus Garvey

1. Compare and contrast the westward expansion of the United States and Canada.
2. How successful was the National Policy in Canada?
3. Compare and contrast the role of the railroad in United States and Canadian growth.
4. Describe the contribution of women to frontier life in any two countries of the region.
5. What issues concerned women in the nineteenth century and how did they resolve to solve them?
6. What were the reasons for westward expansion in the United States and Canada in the second half of the nineteenth century?
7. Compare the political and social impact of immigration in any two countries of the region, 1890 to 1920.
8. Discuss the course and impact of the growth of unions in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries in two countries in the region.
9. "Women were invisible in the late nineteenth century and early twentieth century in the Americas." In what aspects of life could you make a case for this point of view and in what aspects would you oppose it? Draw your examples from at least two countries in the region.
10. Examine the nature of progressivism and show (a) how the movement affected women and (b) how women affected progressivism.
11. Evaluate the impact of immigration on one country of the region from the mid-nineteenth century to 1919.
